H. C. Murdock, of Hunnewell was a visitor in this city Saturday.

John Deere and Sattley Gang Plows at A. Jaeger's.

Mrs. M. Humphrey spent Sunday with her son, Harry, who is now the operator for the Burlington at Ely.

Retired.

Jno. J. Rogers has sold his interest in the Rogers & Thompson department store to his partner, Edgar A. Thompson who will continue the business at the old stand and who will continue to receive the trade from the hundreds and hundreds of friends made during the years he has been connected in business with Mr. Rogers.

Mr. Rogers has made his "jock" during the years between Sept. 1877 and the present and deserves the well earned rest, but that rest does not mean idleness for he has his farms and fancy horses that will interest him and take a large portion of his time.

While many people and his business associates will regret his leaving the mercantile arena yet one and will join the Democrat in congratulating him on his successful business career.

The End

Of the shooting scrape of the 14th inst., was a mild one and yet a just one. The Greek who shot young Fogle was fined $15.75 and $164 of his money returned to him. Bob Seal of Ely used his kindly persuasion on the attorney, R. S. McClintic and as all parties realized the shooting was purely an accident and that the Greek carried all of his saving on his person therefore from one view point was partially excusable for carrying the gun. As young Fogle is recovering nicely from the wound, it is a case of all is well that ends well.

Just for luck—next Thursday at the Ralls County Fair.

New Wrinkle.

The citizens on Second street are going to strike a new gait. The Standard Oil Co. is to furnish enough crude oil to lay the dust on that street from the First Baptist church one mile east. C. A. Lawson and those having the matter in charge are to pay the freight and apply the oil to the street.

For Rent.

A good double store room, now occupied by Rogers & Thompson. Apply to

MRS. LUCY A. REDMAN.

Mrs. Emma D. Scott of Carrollton, Grand Matron, and Mrs. Geneva T. Wyatt of St. Louis, Grand Lecturer of the Eastern Star, were with their Monroe friends Sunday.

For Sale.

Band Concert

—And—

Election Returns

North Park, Tuesday, Eve., August 2.

Proceeds for the Benefit of the Band Boys.

NOTE—It takes a vast amount of hard work and no little money to keep a band going. In most places the required money is raised by subscription. This kind of appeal has never been made by the Monroe City band, but you are asked to patronize the coming entertainment and "help the boys out." Do not neglect this. By your patronage you aid a worthy cause, besides more than get your money's worth.
